Alimony, Prenuptuals and Modifications

An upcoming public seminar from The Divorce Center professionals

Law changes that will affect outcomes

The 2017 Tax Act will affect critical financial situations, namely pre- and post-nuptual agreements, alimony and contempt actions.

Changes to tax treatment of alimony may affect both the payer and the potential recipient going forward.

Presenters will discuss the impact of these changes on the likely outcome of divorce cases, and what it may mean for the positions spouses take in divorce proceedings.

April 25, 2018, 7-8:30 p.m.
