BY MICHELE D. MANISCALCO

As part of the Boston Main Streets Awards program, Mayor Martin J. Walsh and the Office of Economic Development joined Washington Gateway Main Street (WGMS) in honoring Foodie's Urban Market, 1421 Washington Street, with the Business of the Year Award on Wednesday, June 28. The Mayor's stop at Foodie's was part of a multi-day trolley tour of the Main Street business districts at which he recognized outstanding businesses

Foodie's staff, WGMS board members in neighborhoods across the city. In the ceremony outside Foodie's, Walsh saluted manager Victor Leon, Jr.; Randi Grohe Lathrop, co-founder of WGMS, on her Volunteer of the Year award; and Jennifer Ef-

Tito Puente Latin Music Series Returns to O'Day

BY MICHELE D. MANISCALCO

Salsa and merengue filled O'Day Playground, 85 West New-ton Street, with music and dancing on Thursday, July 6 when the Tito Puente Latin Music Series opened its 2017 season with timbalero (timbales player) Eric Germán y su Orquesta. Germán's infectious music quickly filled the plaza with dancers from kids to seniors, including a surprisingly nimble man with a cane.

Window Falls Prevention

SUBMITTED BY THE BOSTON PUBLIC HEALTH COMMISSION

Child Safety

Window Guards

In response to the ongoing tragedy of children falling out of windows, the Injury Prevention Program launched a campaign to educate communities about window falls prevention and promotes the use of child safety window guards.

Falls are the leading cause of injury to children age five and under. It only takes seconds for a fall to occur. Window falls can cause serious injuries, yet they can be prevented. By combining education and engineering, we protect children from dangerous falls.

Aluminum or steel bars with a maximum four inch spacing that are installed in the window frame. Designed and tested to withstand 150 pounds of pressure.

Recommended for the second story and above and for the first floor if the window is over 12 feet high.

Not required by law in Massachusetts, but are recommended in homes with children age six and under.

Cannot be substituted with window screens, which are designed to keep out insects and bugs but are NOT strong enough to keep a child from falling out.

Safety Tips

- Lock all unopened doors and windows
- Keep beds, furniture, and anything a child can climb on away from windows
- Open windows from the top, not from the bottom
- Install child safety window guards
- Be sure children are always supervised

Operable Window Guards

Releasable or removable from the inside without the use of separate tools, a key, or excessive force.

Can be installed on all windows, including those on which fixed from, outgoing executive director of WGMS on her five years of service to the South End business community. Office of Neighborhood Services director Jerome Smith, director of neighborhood development Sheila Dillon,

Office of Neighborhood Services liaison Sam Chambers, and District 7 city councilor and mayoral candidate Tito Jackson were among the city officials accompanying Walsh. City Council District 2 candidates Michael Kelley and Ed Flynn took the occasion to greet South Enders, Kelley accompanied by newly minted campaign staffer, former city council candidate Ramon Soto, while Flynn appeared with his campaign sidekick and 14-year-old daughter Caroline in tow.

At the Foodie's event, Walsh spoke to guests and shoppers inside and outside the store and posed for photographs. Afterward, Walsh was well-fed as he strolled down the block visiting other businesses. At Harry O's, 1405 Washington Street, owner Evangelos Xestermos welcomed him with a slice of pizza and at The Gallows, 1395 Washington Street, owner Rebecca Roth Gullo served the mayor her restaurant's signature dessert, Stoner's Delight, a banana, peanut butter, chocolate ganache and fluff confection. "There's no weed in it, don't worry," Gullo quipped.

external affairs for the Boston Parks and Recreation Department, (BPRD) estimated that 325 to 350 people attended the concert, which ran from 7:00-9:00 PM. The city-wide Tito Puente Latin Music Series is sponsored by IBA Arts, Berklee College of Music and BPRD.

The series will continue at O'Day Playground at 7:00 PM on Thursday, July 13 with Puerto Rico's Queen of the Timbales, Zayra Pola, and the third and final O'Day Playground concert will take place on Thursday, August 3 at 7:00 PM, when Jesús Pagán and Conjunto Barrio bring a wide range of Latin beats to the plaza including salsa, merengue, Latin jazz, cumbia and more. The Tito Puente Latin Music Series is free, open to the public and family-friendly.

window guards cannot be used.

Recommended by the Boston Fire Department because they have a release feature that allows escape in case of an emergency.

Additional Information

Fixed (permanent) guards or window locks can also be used to restrict the window openings to less than four inches. One window in each room needs to be free of these devices in order to allow for emergency escape.

Child safety window guards are NOT the same as burglar/security bars. Security bars are wide enough to allow a child to slip through and should not be used as a safety window guard. Child safety window guards are not designed to protect against intruders.

As part of the MBTA’s System Wide Accessibility Program, the MBTA is studying how to provide full accessibility to Symphony Station on the Green Line. This study includes the design of four new elevators, along with significant station modifications consisting of raising boarding platforms, new egress points at the platforms, a renovated station lobby, and reconditioning of the currently delunct restrooms.

A team of consultants has been hired to select a preliminary design for the retrofitted station. It includes lead structural engineer Thornton Tomasetti and lead architect DHK Inc, both of Boston. It is anticipated that modifications to the station, associated with construction and final build out, will have an impact on the existing streetscape in the area. The MBTA has allocated approximately $5 million for the design of the station. The construction cost is anticipated to be approximately $45 million, which is proposed to be funded by a Capital Funding Request starting in the 2019 Fiscal Year.
