

Music fills South End Parks again

BY MICHELE D. MANISCALCO

Better late than never: Two of the South End's much-loved concert series returned this month, a little later than usual due to this year's pandemic-related uncertainty but just in time to delight neighbors eager to return to South End summer fun.

The Titus Sparrow Summer Concert Series returned on Wednesday, July 14 with the Fifth Season Quartet, which infuses jazz classics and originals with Bulgarian musical traditions of founders Elena Koleva (vocals) and Plamen Karadonev (piano, accordion).

The series will continue every Wednesday night at 6:30 PM through September 1, the final show with songsstress Eva Davenport, which begins at 6:00 PM. See www.titus-sparrowpark.org for the full schedule.

sparrowpark.org for the full schedule.

Penni Layne and the Wonder Boys brought their special R & B and soul groove to Worcester Square when the Music on the Square concert series made its season debut on Thursday, July 22. Singles, couples and families gathered around the fountain and on the lawn to eat, drink, chat and dance, and didn't let a little rain dampen their high spirits.

The series will continue with a concert in August and a special Sunday afternoon show in September. Details on the August and September dates will be announced at www.worcestersquare.org and at the WSANA Facebook page, <https://www.facebook.com/WorcesterSquare>.

COMPILED FROM BOSTON POLICE DEPARTMENT REPORTS

17-Year-Old Suspect Arrested for June 12 Shots Fired Investigation

At about 4:34 AM on Thursday July 15, 2021, members of the BPD SWAT Team in coordination with patrol officers and detectives assigned to District D-4 (South End) arrested a 17-year-old male from the South End on firearm related charges following the execution of an arrest warrant at his residence.

At the time of his arrest, the juvenile suspect was wanted on a warrant sought out of Suffolk County

Juvenile Court on charges of Delinquent to Wit: Unlawful Possession of a Firearm, Unlawful Possession of Ammunition, Carrying a Loaded Firearm, Assault by Means of a Dangerous Weapon, Discharging a Firearm within 500 Feet of a Dwelling and Vandalization of Property.

The arrest came as a result of an investigation into a daytime shots fired incident that occurred on Saturday June 12, 2021, in the area of Monsignor Reynolds Way in the South End. On arrival, officers were directed to a building in the complex that appeared to have sustained ballistic damage to the front doors. Upon entering the building, officers met with an adult male who stated that he heard several shots fired and ran outside to grab his two pet ducks who were not injured during the incident. Officers observed ballistic damage to the window of the male's apartment but he confirmed that the damage had been sustained during a prior incident.

Officers continued their investigation, locating ballistic damage to another apartment window and later made contact with an adult female who stated she was home with her two children when she heard the sound of gunfire and a bullet struck her window. Officers also observed ballistic damage to the victim's television. Thankfully, there were no reported injuries.

ZONING HEARING

The Zoning Commission of the City of Boston hereby gives notice, in accordance with Chapter 665 of the Acts of 1956, as amended, that a virtual public hearing will be held on August 11, 2021, at 9:15 A.M., in connection with a petition for approval of the First Amendment to the Development Plan for Planned Development Area No. 106, 1000 Washington Street and 321 Harrison Avenue ("First Amendment"), filed by the Boston Redevelopment Authority d/b/a the Boston Planning & Development Agency.

Said First Amendment amends the Development Plan to establish a review process for any proposed Research and Development Use on the site which would operate at BioSafety Level 3, as established by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (each, a "BSL-3 Sub-Use").

This meeting will only be held virtually and not in person. You can participate in this meeting by going to <https://bit.ly/3ixmlmK>. Copies of the petition, the First Amendment and a map of the area involved may be obtained from the Zoning Commission electronically, and you may also submit written comments or questions to jeffrey.hampton@boston.gov.

HOMELESS SERVICES AND HOSPITAL CAPACITY

On April 2nd, Mayor Walsh announced that construction begins at the Boston Convention and Exhibition Center to add 500 beds for treating homeless adults who have tested positive for COVID-19 and need care, but do not require full hospitalization.

The City has released a Request for Proposals to secure a partner organization to operate the facility. If necessary, the Convention Center beds will be opened up for hospitals to use for sub-acute COVID patients in the general population.

These 500 beds will bring Boston's total number of new beds for homeless individuals to over 1,000. This includes Boston Medical Center's Newton Pavilion facility, which the City and State are working to re-purpose as a medical facility for homeless residents affected by the coronavirus.

SMALL BUSINESS SUPPORT

On April 2nd, Mayor Walsh announced two new resources that will help small businesses during the public health crisis.

The City of Boston has created a Small Business Relief Fund. Drawing on a combination of City, federal, and private industry contributions, it establishes $2 million in grant funding—capable of providing a lifeline to hundreds of local businesses at risk of shutting down permanently due to the crisis. It will be administered as a streamlined version of the City's Small Business Financing program. Small businesses can begin applying on Monday, April 6.

The City of Boston has also created a Financial Relief Handbook and FAQ document for small businesses. It's a resource for navigating
