Message from Mayor Gregor Robertson

On behalf of the citizens of Vancouver and my colleagues on City Council, I want to extend my warmest greetings to the Vancouver's Pride Parade and Festival 2018. This year the City of Vancouver has declared 2018 as Year of the Queer and I want to congratulate the LGBTQ2S+ community and the Vancouver Pride Society on this great achievement.

Celebrating Vancouver Pride Society's 40th anniversary in 2018, the free and inclusive festival reflects the spirit of the LGBTQ2S+ community and reminds us that Pride is for everyone. Vancouver's Pride Parade and Festival is one of the biggest and best in the world, attracting hundreds of thousands of residents and visitors every year to show support and join in the festivities. Besides being a fabulous time, Pride is a celebration of hard-fought progress in the community's work to secure legal and lived equality. Pride is also a time to celebrate Vancouver's commitment to diversity, equality, and inclusion.

The organizations celebrating the Year of the Queer have collectively provided over 330 years of service to the city's LGBTQ2S+ community, and continue to make significant contributions to the social, cultural, and artistic landscape of Vancouver.

I would once again like to thank the Vancouver Pride Society, the LGBTQ2S+ community, the sponsors, and the dedicated team of volunteers for hosting such a world-class celebration of culture, freedom, and community spirit in Vancouver.

On behalf of the City of Vancouver, Happy Pride!

Yours truly,

On behalf of the Vancouver Pride Society board of directors, we would like to welcome you to celebrate our very special 40th anniversary.

40 years of Pride in Vancouver represents a significant amount of societal change. As we reflect on how far we have come, we have been honoured to hear so many stories from our elders about what it was like to be here in Vancouver during those early years. Before our community had equal protections under the law, before we were able to marry or have families of our own, before we could move around freely without fear of harm, before government cared about issues that affected us, dozens of brave people celebrated who they were.

So many victories have been realized in the four decades since, but there is still so much work to do. Lucky for us, our youth are leading the way. On issues of diversity and inclusion, young people across Metro Vancouver are making their voices heard. At the centre of many of these discussions is identity.

Whether it be sexual orientation or gender identity, ethnicity or ability, age or immigration status, it is easy to put pieces of who we are into boxes. But this year, we wanted to celebrate every part of us. We want everyone who comes to Pride to be free to be themselves.

Whether it is East Side Pride or the Pride Sports Day, the Pride Parade or Pride Festival, we invite you to Be You. Bring ALL of you. #BeYouVancouver

Greater Vancouver Native Cultural Society

Members of the Greater Vancouver Native Cultural Society, a non-profit Two-Spirit community organization, will be present at all Pride events to perform the Down Ceremony. The Down Ceremony is a sacred ceremony used by many coastal First Nations, and gives us an opportunity to cleanse the grounds on which Pride events will be held. The Down feathers, which are blown into the air, is a part of the ceremonial cleansing which offers a blessing, and it may fall on your person. It also signifies that "we come in peace!"

GVNCS Two Spirit Flag

The Society flag was commissioned by the Council of Elders to the Greater Vancouver Native Cultural Society (GVNCS) in 2016. Its design was created by Elder and Chief 19 and 36, Silver Coyote, with blessings by all Elders present that year.

The flag shows two of the Society's cultural logos—the salmon, representing the West Coast, hugging the tepee in the center, signifying the creation of the Society by the plains people who migrated to the Lower Mainland. The words "Two Spirit" were added recently, because of the pioneers' determination to blaze a trail so that all Two Spirit people, then and now, could enjoy a safe space here in Vancouver. The colourful rainbow feathers signify many Indigenous cultures within GVNCS.

This year, GVNCS enjoys the honour of having its flag raised at the "Year of the Queer" launch at Vancouver's City Hall. Being recognized by the community at large contributes to the Society's history of continuous development over many years of claiming our right as Indigenous members of LGBTQ2S+ communities and of the City of Vancouver.

GVNCS's flag will also fly over Victoria City Hall this year as requested by Victoria Pride!

Two Spirit

The term "Two-Spirit" has a number of meanings within several different contexts. For instance, in contemporary times with the advent of lesbian and gay liberation, Two Spirit means aboriginal people who may identify themselves as gay, lesbian, trans or other queer identities. The terms 'gay' and 'lesbian' are European in origin. Therefore, Two-Spirit is preferred because it is more culturally relevant to Aboriginal lesbians and gay men.

When the Europeans came to Turtle Island, they brought with them their religions, their values, and their way of looking at the world, which adversely affected Aboriginal communities including our sexual expression. We learned before colonization that Two-Spirit was a gift, which had promise and potential. Two-Spirit people were respected and honoured, and were visionaries and healers in our communities. We have rediscovered that we continue to have a spiritual place in our world.

Aboriginal culture is recognized for its emphasis on balance and harmony in all of creation. No one element, force, or impulse dominates the others. The term Two-Spirit originates from the First Nations recognition of the traditions and sacredness of people who maintain a balance by housing both the male and female spirit.

Elders teach us that Two-Spirit people have a special place in our communities. We believe that Two-Spirit people have specific duties and responsibilities to perform. With traditional teachings and training these may include: counselling, healing, being pipe carriers, being visionaries (seers) and conducting oneself in accordance with our belief that all life is respected.

Based on historical evidence that comes from recorded material, out of ninety-nine tribes, there are references to gay culture in eighty-eight of them, of which twenty made specific references to lesbianism. One among the Crow, for instance, Two-Spirit men were responsible for cutting down the tree which is used for the Sun Dance ceremony. This is a respected and vital position to hold in the ceremony.

Coming together in the urban setting has allowed us to look at our sexuality from political perspectives, which allows for empowerment of Two-Spirit people. Organizations, such as the 'Two-Spirit People of the First Nations', have been founded and give validity to the vital role which Two-Spirit people are striving to reclaim our traditional positions within our Nations and are taking our rightful place.

Fundraising

Funds raised during the 2018 Pride Season go not only towards creating a world-class Pride Parade and Festivals which are free for everyone to attend, but also support non-profit organizations that provide services to LGBTQAI2S+ communities.

The Vancouver Pride Society's Parade and festivals would not be possible without the generosity and support of our communities. With your help, we are able to work with diverse groups to remember our history and the challenges we've conquered together, while recognizing the work that we still need to do to achieve equality.

Toonies For Pride SAFEWAY

In 2018, we are inviting people to Be You. Bring All Of You. We all come with complex histories and backgrounds, yet are often pressured to compartmentalize our identities. As we celebrate our 40th Anniversary, we are reflecting on the legacy of activism which has brought about the societal progress we celebrate today, as well as those who are leading the charge today for justice for all members of our communities. It is with pride and pleasure that we announce our 2018 Pride Parade Grand Marshals, Laurie McDonald, Ron Dutton, and A Mile In Our Moccasins, whose historic and current activism have contributed to the legacy of our diverse communities. Our Grand Marshals will ride in style during the Pride Parade courtesy of Dilawri Auto Group.

Laurie McDonald is a Two-Spirit from the Enoch Cree Nations near Edmonton, Alberta, who recognized at a young age he was given a gift. Supported by his family in early childhood, his life was turned upside in 1960, when he was scooped and placed in the Ermineskin Indian Residential School where his life became a daily struggle. Upon leaving, Laurie promised himself that he would do everything in his power to restore the pride in being Two-Spirit, and to protect the rights of Aboriginal children through education. Laurie became one of the founders of the Greater Vancouver Native Cultural Two-Spirit Society which is still an active and thriving society 41 years later, educating, supporting, and promoting LGBT and First Nations communities as well as Two-Spirit People.

During the political activism of the 1970's, Ron Dutton began documenting the gay liberation movement. This groundbreaking activism was making history, yet no one seemed to be documenting it. Ron drew on his library science skills to collect and organize everything that came to hand, from posters and political pamphlets to press reports and meeting minutes. The Archives profile quickly expanded as Ron began collecting backwards as queer material emerged about the past. Ron became an obsessive advocate for preserving the rich, unique heritage of Greater Vancouver's queer communities. 42 years later, the BC Gay & Lesbian archives now tops ¾ million items, and has outgrown Ron's capacity to store it. In March 2018, the archives were moved to the City of Vancouver Archives for its conservation, public access, and conversion into searchable, permanent formats.

A Mile In Our

Moccasins is a film co-created by five Indigenous Youth living with HIV. The film was an idea brought to life through an Indigenous talking circle, which gave them an opportunity to share the realities, strengths, challenges, and experiences of living with HIV. This powerful process was the vision that became A Mile In Our Moccasins; a mixture of lived experience, scientific facts, and Indigenous culture and spirituality are woven throughout the film. The film combats HIV stigma and addresses HIV myths while awakening compassion and awareness in viewers. The youth in the film are not victims; they have transformed some of the darkest parts of their lives and used them as a driving force to support and empower Indigenous communities. Storytelling is one of the oldest forms of teaching and knowledge transfer in Indigenous culture. A Mile in Our Moccasins is a story of resilience, healing, and empowerment.

Sexual orientation. Gender identity. Religion. Ethnicity. Race. Age. Heritage. Ability. Class background. Immigration status. We all come with complex histories and backgrounds, yet in so many spaces we feel pressured to compartmentalize our identities. When do we get the chance to bring all of ourselves to the table?

This year, as Vancouver Pride Society celebrates our 40th Anniversary, our board and staff have reflected on the monumental societal changes that have occurred over our lifetimes. From Bill C-150 to We Demand, from Little Sisters vs Canada to the Pinetree GSA, we are the recipients of a legacy which strove to carve out a space for us, not to assimilate, but to be ourselves. As we celebrate this milestone, we honour the elders whose activism afforded us the ability to have these conversations today; and we look to the youth who are making groundbreaking strides in creating a culture in which we can openly embrace our every part of our identities.

Did you know many birds are bisexual? Artists Karen Oldridge and Marti Boivin wanted to bring awareness to bi-erasure and bi-phobia. The peacock is often used as a symbol within the community to represent bisexuality. Bi-erasure happens when bisexual people are seen as gay or straight which leads to losing a sense of identity and ostracization from both queer and straight communities.

Visit Strut, who will be unveiled at Pride Premiere, and strut your stuff. Find Strut at the Pride Gateway in Jim Deva Plaza Aug 1-5!

The event was a resounding success, and we are excited to partner again in 2018.

In 2018, the youth have spoken! Over the last several months, an LGBTQAI2S+ youth advisory committee helped plan this year's Pride At The Pier and they asked for Drag, Drag, and More Drag, so we are bringing it to them! Dance along the water to local queer DJs, take in magnificent Drag performances, and hit up one of our craft and activity stations. Whether you are young, or just young at heart, we welcome you to celebrate Pride, at the pier!

Shade tents are provided.

Pride

started because there were no LGBTQIA+ legal protections and the community lived as second-class citizens, relegated to the closets.

Microsoft has been at the forefront of inclusion since 1989 – recognizing same-sex benefits globally. Today we operate in over 200 countries, many of which still don't have protections to LGBTQIA+ individuals.

As we march in 40 cities around the world, we ask you to be an ally.

Embrace your peers, see their stories and share your own.

Pride Gateway
August 1-5 • 10am-10pm
Jim Deva Plaza

We are proud to celebrate our 40th Anniversary in a location rich with meaning and history. Join us every day from August 1-5 in the Jim Deva Plaza for Pride Gateway to learn about Pride events in the city and pick up an official Pride Guide. Visiting town? Making Pride plans? Staff will be present to answer your Pride Week questions and tell you about our events. Learn LGBTQAI2S+ history and play trivia games for the chance to win #BeYouVancouver stickers. Need some Pride Swag? Buy a Pride Flag! We will be selling hand-held Pride flags while supplies last all week at the Pride Gateway.

Pride Gateway will feature several public art pieces which invite you to interact and engage with them. Work together with a friend to bring Strut the Peacock to life (more information on page 24), and create a dazzling display of rainbow lights on the Pride Obelisk, a voice-activated light tour. Performers will be delighting crowds on Fireworks nights (Aug 1 & 4) so drop by on your way through the West End.

Terry Wallace Memorial Breakfast

FREE • August 4 • 8am-12pm
Bute Street at Davie

Terry Wallace, manager of the Castle Pub, raised money through the pub through 50/50's and pull-tab machines to fund the Pride Parade through years of financial uncertainty. Terry Wallace died in 2004 and is remembered as a gentle peace-keeper who worked out of the spotlight.

We invite you to join the Vancouver Pride Society for a by-donation community breakfast honouring the legacy of one of our founders. Enjoy a pancake breakfast buffet in the heart of the Davie Village, courtesy of Independent Grocer and Super Save Group. Browse through the Vancouver Pride Society's From The Archives exhibit and socialize with new and old friends at a community-centric event.

40th Annual Pride Parade

August 5 • 12pm-3pm

Robson Street, Denman Street, Beach Avenue

The Vancouver Pride Parade is renowned on the international stage as one of the largest LGBTQAI2S+ events in the world.

The theme of Pride 2018 is Be You. Bring All Of You. Use #BeYouVancouver on social media to tell us why it is important to you to celebrate all of your identities.

Vote for your favourite Pride Parade entries on the Vancouver Pride App or visit vancouverpride.ca for instructions on how to vote.

2018 Pride Parade Emcees

“The Unstoppable” Conni Smudge will be emceeding in front of the Safeway @ Denman & Robson. From the biker bars of Nanaimo to the grand theatres of Europe, Conni Smudge has performed in some of the unlikeliest places.

Well-known community member and communications professional Caryl Dolinko will be emceeding outside of Denman Place Mall. Caryl has held many positions within local and international communities including InterPride, Friends Help Friends, Vancouver Dyke March, and Vancouver Pride.

Past Vancouver Pride Grand Marshal Joan-E will emcee for you outside The Boathouse during the Pride Parade. An inductee of Canada’s Queer Hall Of Fame, Joan-E has received both The Golden and Diamond Jubilee Medals from Queen Elizabeth II.

Don’t forget:

- Please stay off the road. Let marchers come to you to give you free swag and ensure that floats have room to move.
- Do not spray water or throw objects at entries. Our community members have put a lot of time and money into their hair, make-up and costumes. Please respect them!
- Be aware of road closures on Pride Sunday. The Parade begins at noon but roads close from 8am-4pm.
- Leave your car at home and #RideToPride or plan your transit trip.
- Open alcohol is prohibited on streets and in parks so leave it at home. Come to the Beer Garden at Sunset Beach after the Parade and have a toast with us there.
- Practice Sun Safety! Wear a hat, apply sunscreen and make sure to stay hydrated.

Accessible Viewing along the parade route

NEW! Enjoy our new accessible tactile drag show, The Magic Of Drag, produced in partnership with Tuck Entertainment and VocalEye.

To make a reservation, or to request intervenor services, please call 604-687-0955 or email accessibility@vancouverpride.ca. No one will be turned away on Parade day as long as space is available.

Untoxicated

August 5 • 6pm-10pm
Bute Street at Davie

2018 marks the 10th Anniversary of Clean Sober and Proud. To celebrate, Last Door Recovery Society promises to host the best Untoxicated show ever on Pride Day. Icons Trixie Mattel and Sasha Velour will be gracing the Untoxicated stage in 2018. Along with MCs Crystal Clearly and Alma Bitches will be joined by PIOTR, Raye Sunshine, Jaylene Tyme and DJ Del Stamp.

Untoxicated is one of the world's largest Pride Day substance free events and anyone who wishes to enjoy Pride in a drug and alcohol free space is welcome to attend.

Last Door's Clean, Sober, and Proud committee started in 2008 as a small entry in the Pride Parade consisting of nine people wanting to have sober fun during Pride Day. This small idea has evolved into award winning floats, community and outreach booths at various Prides. This year they have added Campbell River Island Pride to the network of outreach booths during Pride Season, as well as hosting the Sober Lounge at Pride Premiere.

This year's street festival will be held on Bute St and Davie from 6 pm to 10 pm.

2018 Trans, Two Spirit, Genderqueer, Intersex March Friday, August 3rd, 6pm

We are beautiful, brilliant, creative, strong and resilient with diverse gender definitions and expressions. Our bodies are beautiful in all forms!

Organized by a gender-diverse grass roots collective of volunteers, the 2018 Trans, Two-Spirit, Genderqueer, Intersex March is an opportunity for us to celebrate, proudly express our pride and make our voices heard on the issues that affect our lives including violence, bullying, erasure from social histories, harassment and discrimination by public institutions.

We operate in a spirit of inclusion with two-spirit people who may or may not also claim identities such as trans and genderqueer and stand in solidarity with BLM Vancouver, Queer and Trans People of Colour and others that feel unwelcome at mainstream pride events.

Please come prepared for the weather :) Water, snacks and sunscreen will be made available.

6:00pm – Come with slogans to put on our brand new signs! Materials provided.

6:45pm – March from Clark Park to Victoria Park (Victoria and Grant)

Aging with Pride (AWP) has a remarkable legacy of five organizations and seeks to deliver an inclusive event that highlights and celebrates underserved LGBTQ/2S. In Pride we find affirmation of our worth, we ground our lived experiences as foundational, and we empower ourselves to propel our communities forward, breaking glass ceilings of inclusion within the community at large and within our own ranks.

Each year the committee connects our communities together to recognize the lived experiences of LGBTQ/2S seniors. This is achieved alongside, and because of, the persistent efforts of the activists who have come before. The AWP committee acknowledges that legacy with admiration and humility.

We want to invite all folks to continue working towards dismantling of barriers of access, representation, visibility and inclusion for the tremendous 55+ LGBTQ/2S senior community.

2018 Pride Guide

15th Vancouver Dyke March & Festival

Saturday, August 4, 11am-5pm

March from McSpadden Park to Grandview Park

Celebrate a milestone with the Vancouver Dyke March! We are thrilled to invite you to Vancouver's 15th Dyke March & Festival for a celebration of queer women! Beginning in McSpadden Park at 11am with pre-March festivities and a community art project, we will then take to the streets and make our way down Commercial Drive at 12pm (noon). From 1-5pm, join us in Grandview Park for artists, performances, and queer-friendly vendors in a space to gather with friends, family, and the community.

The Vancouver Dyke March and Festival celebrates and centres those whose gender identity or expression intersects with their sexual orientation to further marginalize them within the broader LGBTQ2+ community, including but not limited to trans and cisgender women and femmes. We recognize that not all participants use the word dyke, but may prefer terms such as lesbian, queer, two-spirited, bisexual, pansexual, asexual or aromantic.

Were you directly affected by the LGBT Purge in the Canadian Armed Forces, RCMP or Federal Public Service?

A settlement has been approved by the court. Please read this notice carefully.

A settlement between the Canadian Federal Government and certain current or former members of the Canadian Armed Forces (“CAF”), the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (“RCMP”) and employees of the Federal Public Service (“FPS”) who were affected by the LGBT Purge has been approved by the court. The “LGBT Purge” refers to actions taken by the Federal Government of Canada to identify, investigate, sanction, and in some cases, terminate the employment of or discharge LGBTQ2 members of the CAF, RCMP or FPS.

The class action lawsuits were commenced by Todd Ross, Martine Roy, and Alida Satalic (the “Representative Plaintiffs”). The Federal Government of Canada is called “Canada”.

WHO IS INCLUDED? The settlement provides for certain benefits and compensation to the following individuals (“Class Members”): All current or former members of the CAF, current or former members of the RCMP, and current or former Employees of the FPS, who were alive as of October 31, 2016 and who faced threat of sanction, were investigated, were sanctioned, or who were discharged or released from the CAF or RCMP or terminated from the FPS, or who resigned from the FPS, in connection with the LGBT Purge, by reason of their sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression between December 1, 1955 and June 20, 1996.

Family members of individuals who are deceased, but who would otherwise fall within one of the above classes are not Class Members and are not eligible for compensation. They may however, apply for and may be found to be eligible to receive individual recognition measures.

All Class Members, except those who validly opt out of the settlement, will be bound by the settlement, will be covered by the releases in the settlement, and will not have the right to sue Canada for harms caused by the LGBT Purge.

WHAT DOES THE SETTLEMENT PROVIDE? The settlement provides: (a) Broad based reconciliation and memorialization measures to be funded by Canada in an amount not less than $15 million; (b) Individual reconciliation and recognition measures consisting of (i) an award to be created and called the Canada Pride Citation; and (ii) a personal letter of apology; and (c) Individual compensation for those who were directly affected by the official policies.

All Class Members are eligible for individual reconciliation and recognition measures.

Only those Class Members who establish that they were investigated, sanctioned, discharged or terminated, are eligible to claim Individual Compensation. The range of Individual Compensation for most Class Members will be between $5,000 and $50,000. Class Members who experienced exceptional harm such as PTSD or who were sexually assaulted may be eligible for additional amounts.

HOW DO I GET THIS MONEY AND THESE BENEFITS? You must make a claim for money and/or for individual reconciliation and recognition measures. To do so, you must complete a Claim Form and send it to the Claims office during the Claims Period. The Claims Period will commence on October 25, 2018 and will end on April 25, 2019. A copy of the Claim Form will be available prior to the commencement of the Claims Period at www.lgbtpurgesettlement.com. If there is an appeal of the settlement approval order, the Claims Period may be extended or postponed. You are not eligible for these benefits if you opt out.

HOW MUCH MONEY WILL I GET? Amounts will depend on the type of harm you suffered and how many Eligible Class Members submit claims in the settlement. The details are explained in the settlement agreement. A copy of the settlement agreement is available here: www.lgbtpurgesettlement.com.

The Court approved a payment to Class Counsel in the amount of $15 million, plus applicable tax. You do not need to pay Class Counsel any money.

WHAT IF I DON'T WANT TO BE BOUND BY THE SETTLEMENT? If you do not want to be bound by the settlement, you must opt out of the class action by September 20, 2018. If you opt out, you will not be entitled to any benefits or compensation for the settlement, and your claim against Canada in respect of the LGBT Purge will not be released. To opt out of the settlement, you must submit an Opt Out Form to the Claims Administrator. A copy of the Opt Out Form is available at www.lgbtpurgesettlement.com.

If you have commenced a legal proceeding against Canada relating to the LGBT purge, and you do not discontinue it on or before September 20, 2018 you will be deemed to have opted out of the settlement.

WANT MORE INFORMATION? Visit www.lgbtpurgesettlement.com, call 1-833-346-6178, email lgbtpurge@deloitte.ca, or write to LGBT Purge Class Action, c/o Deloitte, Bay Adelaide East, 8 Adelaide Street West, Suite 200, Toronto ON, M5H 0A9.

Asexual/Aromantic Visibility

What Asexual And Aromantic Visibility Mean to Me

by Justine, a.k.a. Heart

Once upon a time, I thought I was "normal". I thought I'd come with all the defaults: cisgendered girl, heterosexual, monogamous. I think this is how a lot of people's stories start.

I got myself a boyfriend, I fell in love. I did the monogamous, straight, cis thing. And it worked. Until it didn't. I was supposed to "be ready" for sex one day, to want it even.

That feeling when it doesn't work is the defining moment for me of being queer. It was a moment that lasted years and was full of twists and turns, but it was my moment. I started by feeling broken, lost, alone, and unworthy of affection, all because I don't love the same way everyone else seems to. I watched my hopes vanish and I grasped desperately at the fleeting dreams sliding away, trying to keep even just a wisp of them from fading away into nothing. I felt my sense of self being ripped away from me, having nothing left of those hopes and dreams. Having to start from the ground up to rebuild how I saw my future.

I tried talking to a doctor. Maybe it was hypoactive sexual desire disorder. Maybe it was a fear of pregnancy. Here take these pills they might help.

But they didn't. I was still deeply in love, but I was still not sexually attracted to the man I was in love with. Pills can't fix that. It doesn't need fixing.

It took a couple years and many dark times to find a label to call this part of me that wasn't "right". I don't feel sexual attraction, and I don't feel any innate desire for sex. I want cuddles, corny dates, hugs and emotional intimacy. I want romantic love, but I don't need the sexy bits. And that's ok.

I'm not broken or alone. I'm worthy and capable of love. I found new hopes and dreams, ones that are mine, not given to me by Hollywood but found deep inside the most intimate of places of myself.

Hello world. I'm panromantic, polyamorous, and asexual.

QMUNITY's Peer Support Groups

by Hanna Jacobsen, Trans Gathering Facilitators - QMUNITY

It has been three years since Caitlyn Jenner came out, and since then we have seen an explosion of media coverage of transgender lives and narratives. The trans people we have always known as our coworkers, neighbours, and children are now also in Netflix shows and on the evening news. But the vast majority of this media attention is focused on a small, privileged segment of the community: those who are white, able-bodied, skinny, and have access to hormones and surgery. This creates a narrow definition of what it means to be trans.

Despite this boom in representation, much of the community still finds themselves erased in mainstream media narratives, especially those who are non-binary, low-income, sex workers, disabled, and racialized. These are the people who gave us the first Pride in 1969; the same people who are now being murdered at alarming rates, and are still revolutionizing what "Pride" represents. When we allow the media to reuse the same faded story of a 'girl born in a boy's body', we tell others that their stories are not valid, that they can't possibly be trans, and that they don't belong in their own community. This is dangerous.

We all tell stories about ourselves every day, but we cannot let our own narrative become the only possible one. Many trans-led initiatives are uplifting the voices of transgender people of all bodies, all cultures, all gender expressions, all transition journeys, and all ages. Above all, these stories remind us that our kaleidoscopic experiences cannot be generalized or boxed in.

QMUNITY's peer-facilitated Trans Gathering support group is one place to tell your authentic story without fear of judgement. Visit qmunity.ca/groups/ to learn more about all of our peer support groups.

Harm Reduction

Like many queer folks, my first contact with the community was the nightlife scene. This involved me—far too young—being dragged by a friend to Heaven’s Door. Like many “first time” stories, more than one bad decision was made that evening. I am a better judge of my own limits with intoxication, more conscious of respecting personal boundaries, and more comfortable asserting my own. In many ways these were hard learned lessons, drawing from plenty of bad decisions along the way.

This journey led to my work with Karmik. Karmik is a local harm reduction organization that offers outreach services to nightlife events. We advocate for supportive spaces, opening dialogue around topics like safer drug use and safer sex. We work with communities to provide resources, education and peer counselling relating to issues in nightlife health.

As nightlife spaces continue to bear a particular relevance for queer communities, I am very excited to announce Karmik’s support at Vancouver Pride Society events for a second year running! Talk to us to learn more about Karmik, and to pick up supplies like condoms and earplugs. Our team of trained volunteers will be there if you have questions or need someone to chat with. Have a good summer, and see you at Pride!

At Pride we can lower the risk of harm by:

- Staying hydrated
- Taking breaks from the sun
- Making a plan for the night after Pride festivities which includes getting home safely
- Visiting Karmik’s harm reduction booth to pick up information about safer partying!

Volunteer Thank You

Without volunteers, the Vancouver Pride Society could not produce the extensive list of events we do each year. In 2017, 320 volunteers contributed over 3060 volunteer hours to ensure we could celebrate throughout the festival season and parade day. Volunteers bring a diverse array of skills, passions and experiences to our team and we would not be able to host events without them.

Thank you to all of our past volunteers, returning volunteers, and volunteers-to-be!

Your enthusiasm, hard work and expertise is appreciated by the entire Vancouver Pride Society and the community! We look forward to celebrating with all 2018 volunteers at our Volunteer Appreciation Party, courtesy of Milestones, after Pride Season!

OUR PASSION IS INTENSE. A profound need for answers and a devotion to progress permeates everything we do. We have a burning desire to make a real difference for people living with HIV, and we're not afraid to show it.

Our core values run deep.

A close-up photograph of a muscular hand, likely belonging to a male bodybuilder, with a white bandage wrapped around the ring finger. The hand is positioned on the left side of the frame, with the fingers slightly curled. The background is a solid, vibrant red. The word "FIERCE" is overlaid in large, white, bold, sans-serif capital letters across the middle of the image, with the hand partially obscuring the letters "I", "E", "R", and "C".

We're opening doors for an inclusive tomorrow.

It's normal to feel a little uncertain about change.

But at TD, we want to make the changes of tomorrow a good thing for everyone. And we're starting today.

That's why we created The Ready Commitment.

We're targeting a billion dollars by 2030 towards initiatives that make the world a more inclusive place.

From helping to improve financial security...

And supporting a more vibrant planet...

To increasing access to better health...

And connecting our communities to ensure every voice is heard.

We're committed to helping create an inclusive future that we can all look forward to.
